

Duo Wisteria

The airy voice of the flute meets the rich pulse of the accordion — a sound both delicate and explosive.

Sofia Oleinik - flute

Nikita Verovkin - accordion

Duo Wisteria is a chamber ensemble of the young musicians from Hochschule der Künste Bern based in Bern, Switzerland. The airy voice of the flute meets the rich pulse of the accordion — a sound both delicate and explosive. We reinvent the stage with dazzling, original arrangements for this rare and unexpected duo. From Balkan beats to Spanish flair, jazz to reimagined classics — every note surprises. The duo that breaks the rules — and captures hearts.

Sofi is a flutist and composer currently studying under the renowned flutist Adam Walker in Hochschule der Künste Bern. She has been passionate about music and the arts since childhood and was studying in Tchaikovsky Academic Music College in Moscow. Over the years, she attended masterclasses and collaborations with internationally acclaimed musicians, including Gitte Marcusson. Her artistic vision blends classical training with original compositions, making her performances both expressive and distinctive.

Nikita is a multi-instrumentalist, now a student in Hochschule der Künste Bern. He has favored the accordion over other instruments since early childhood. He has studied with the best accordionists in Europe, in particular, Thibaut Trosset (France), Teodoro Anzellotti (Italy/Switzerland), Bruno Teruel (France). He is a winner of many international competitions in Russia, Serbia and France.
